Our hope as a society always is that with a fair hearing, even the los sour and you lost, so stop bothering us.

What's more, he saw it not as a fight with the government, but as a majority believed that this county necessity tried to tell him, “You need to find a different line of work.”

With the authority of these representatives is to take issue with the vot not from somebody else but from ourselves.

to understand the other person's point of view, and demanding better

depend on the self-restraint of everybody, on making an honest attempt by the Gordon Wheelers of this world. Our liberties, indeed our lives, will take a while for any of them to realize it.

officials and employees who were terrorized, and for the CIRT team interested, not to be given the benefit of the doubt, not to be accorded the society has bent over backward to make sure that all receive a fair hear indispensable to our free society. More than any other in history, our

go to pay our taxes, to judge those who break our collective rules, to Courthouses are not particularly happy places. They are where we

All I know for certain is that the tragedy is profound and should sadden every voter in this county. It is the voters, after all, who choose the people we want to represent us in the difficult and time-consuming tasks of balancing our individual interests alongside its own without bias; the spirit of liberty remembers

other men and women; the spirit of liberty is the spirit which seeks to understand the minds of other men and women? It is not the ruthless, the unbridled will;

isn't freedom to do as one likes. That is the denial of liberty, and leads false hopes. Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; when it dies upon laws, and upon courts. These are false hopes; believe me, these are wonder whether we do not rest our hopes too much upon constitutions,

I don’t pretend to know what went on in the troubled mind of Gordon Wheeler last Tuesday in the minutes before his life ended in a fusillade of bullets in the County Commissioners Room at the Government Center. I can only speculate.

I am particularly sad for Gordy’s family and friends, for the county

Administration. I can only wonder.

every county resident should be saddened by Tuesday’s events

West Words

by Tom West

What do we mean when we say that first of all we seek liberty? I often

wonder whether we do not rest our hopes too much upon constitutions,

upon laws, and upon courts. These are false hopes; liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; it is not the ruthless, the unbridled will; it is not from somebody else but from ourselves.

as we have learned to our sorrow. …

What’s more, he saw it not as a fight with the government, but as a

majority believed that this county

necessity tried to tell him, “You need to find a different line of work.”

With the authority of these representatives is to take issue with the vot

not from somebody else but from ourselves.

to understand the other person's point of view, and demanding better

depend on the self-restraint of everybody, on making an honest attempt

by the Gordon Wheelers of this world. Our liberties, indeed our lives, will take a while for any of them to realize it.

officials and employees who were terrorized, and for the CIRT team

interested, not to be given the benefit of the doubt, not to be accorded the society has bent over backward to make sure that all receive a fair hear

indispensable to our free society. More than any other in history, our

go to pay our taxes, to judge those who break our collective rules, to

Courthouses are not particularly happy places. They are where we

All I know for certain is that the tragedy is profound and should sadden every voter in this county. It is the voters, after all, who choose the people we want to represent us in the difficult and

time-consuming tasks of balancing our individual

interests alongside its own without bias; the spirit of liberty remembers

other men and women; the spirit of liberty is the spirit which seeks to understand the minds of

other men and women? It is not the ruthless, the unbridled will;

isn't freedom to do as one likes. That is the denial of liberty, and leads

false hopes. Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; when it dies

upon laws, and upon courts. These are false hopes; believe me, these are

wonder whether we do not rest our hopes too much upon constitutions,

I don’t pretend to know what went on in the troubled mind of Gordon Wheeler last Tuesday in

the minutes before his life ended in a fusillade of bullets in the County Commissioners Room at the Government Center. I can only speculate.

I am particularly sad for Gordy’s family and friends, for the county

Administration. I can only wonder.

I am particularly sad for Gordy’s family and friends, for the county

Administration. I can only wonder.

West Words

by Tom West

What do we mean when we say that first of all we seek liberty? I often

wonder whether we do not rest our hopes too much upon constitutions,

upon laws, and upon courts. These are false hopes; liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; it is not the ruthless, the unbridled will; it is not from somebody else but from ourselves.

as we have learned to our sorrow. …

What’s more, he saw it not as a fight with the government, but as a

majority believed that this county

necessity tried to tell him, “You need to find a different line of work.”

With the authority of these representatives is to take issue with the vot

not from somebody else but from ourselves.

to understand the other person's point of view, and demanding better

depend on the self-restraint of everybody, on making an honest attempt

by the Gordon Wheelers of this world. Our liberties, indeed our lives, will take a while for any of them to realize it.

officials and employees who were terrorized, and for the CIRT team

interested, not to be given the benefit of the doubt, not to be accorded the society has bent over backward to make sure that all receive a fair hear

indispensable to our free society. More than any other in history, our

go to pay our taxes, to judge those who break our collective rules, to

Courthouses are not particularly happy places. They are where we

All I know for certain is that the tragedy is profound and should sadden every voter in this county. It is the voters, after all, who choose the people we want to represent us in the difficult and

time-consuming tasks of balancing our individual

interests alongside its own without bias; the spirit of liberty remembers

other men and women; the spirit of liberty is the spirit which seeks to understand the minds of

other men and women? It is not the ruthless, the unbridled will;

isn't freedom to do as one likes. That is the denial of liberty, and leads

false hopes. Liberty lies in the hearts of men and women; when it dies

upon laws, and upon courts. These are false hopes; believe me, these are

wonder whether we do not rest our hopes too much upon constitutions,

I don’t pretend to know what went on in the troubled mind of Gordon Wheeler last Tuesday in

the minutes before his life ended in a fusillade of bullets in the County Commissioners Room at the Government Center. I can only speculate.

I am particularly sad for Gordy’s family and friends, for the county

Administration. I can only wonder.

I am particularly sad for Gordy’s family and friends, for the county

Administration. I can only wonder.